

STRIKE MAY FOLLOW RAIL BOARD'S AWARD

MEN UNLIKELY TO BE SATISFIED WITH DECISION

Union Officials Pessimistic on Eve of Chicago Meeting

DEMANDS ARE NOT MET

Award, Handed Down This Morning, Said to Give Only Half of Increase Asked

Chicago, July 19. — The railway labor board, created under the Esch-Cummings transportation act, will hand down tomorrow morning its first award increasing the pay of virtually all the two million railroad employees of the country.

Tonight, on the eve of the decision, reports from reliable quarters indicated the award would average from 50 to 60 per cent of the amount asked by the men, or between $500,000,000 and $600,000,000 of the billion dollar total they sought.

Judge R. M. Barton, chairman of the board, admitted "that is not far off," when shown the report. The board decided today, at the request of newspapers, to announce its decision at 8:30 o'clock instead of 10 as first planned.

Union Officials Silent

Whether an award on the basis reported would be acceptable to the men, no union officer tonight was prepared to say. Nearly 1,000 Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers, conductors, firemen, and trainmen held an all-day session to discuss union affairs and adjourned until tomorrow morning, when they will receive the board's report.

Feelings of pessimism were evident when the union leaders met, and privately they did not hesitate to declare that a general strike was a possibility. Tonight, however, it was virtually certain that the union chiefs themselves would not call a strike but would submit the question of accepting or rejecting the board's award to a referendum.

The labor board began an investigation today of the looting of its offices last night, when someone broke in and stole among other things a copy of the award. Two copies had been prepared, one for the board's files and the other for the printer. It was the former which was stolen.

The printed decision covers 20 pages, making about 6,000 words in all. While an air of doubt hung over the railroad situation here, it was announced from Philadelphia that the Pennsylvania railroad planned a ten per cent reduction in the working force of the road this week. The road's announcement said that in the eastern region alone between 11,000 and 12,000 workers would be laid off.

Applies Only in East

J. G. Rodger, vice president of the Northwestern region of the railroad at Chicago, said the reduction applied only to the eastern region, but that a reduction in this territory was under consideration. He said, however, that the percentage to be laid off and the date when the order would be effective had not been decided.

From the office of the Southwestern region of the railroad in St. Louis, it was learned that no reduction in working force was contemplated there.

The most closely watched conference of rail leaders today was that of the big five group, comprising the Brotherhood of Railway Engineers, Firemen, Conductors, Trainmen and Switchmen. Representatives of the six federated shop crafts, including the blacksmiths, boilermakers, carpenters and electricians, also were in session. While leaders of the maintenance employees—clerks, freight handlers and laborers—met in several conferences in downtown hotels.

There is nothing to be said yet, said Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. "We are here to receive the award of the railroad wage board tomorrow. None of us knows what the award will be. We are talking things over today."

How long the session will last is problematical, leaders said. At the general meeting of union heads today, at which Peter Kiduff, chairman of the engineers' union on the Rock Island system, was elected chairman, credentials of all union representatives were carefully examined before they were allowed to pass through the closely-guarded door. Secrecy shrouded the meeting and newspaper men were not permitted to attend.

The only union leader who was outspoken concerning the situation was S. E. Heberling, president of the Switchmen's Union of North America. He declared the unions were not bound to accept the award.

Award Declared Unacceptable

Asserting that he would not like to see a general strike called, Mr. Heberling said that with the switchmen asking a 60 per cent increase a compromise would hardly be acceptable.

"If the award is not sufficient to assure us a decent living, we will take concerted action," he said.

While the recognized Brotherhood chiefs were in session, another group representing the new rail unions which were organized at the time of the rail strike in April, met under the leadership of John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardmen's association, to formulate plans of their own. They have asked that their seniority rights be restored, but the board refused to hear their representatives here several weeks ago and it was understood that the awards would not touch on their status.

"We are not ready to say at this time just what we will do," said Mr. Grunau, "but I don't believe the men will be satisfied with the award according to advanced reports I've heard of the terms. As soon as the award becomes public, we will call a mass meeting of the men in the Chicago switching district. The action taken will be telegraphed to all locals and they can either endorse or reject the action taken here."

Grunau was to have appeared before a United States commissioner today to answer a charge of conspiracy but by agreement the case was continued until August 22.

Pennsylvania Will Drop 11,000 and More Employees

Philadelphia, July 19. — The Pennsylvania Railroad company announced today that in order to bring about efficiency in its operating force and to curtail expenses as far as practicable, it had been found necessary to effect a reduction of approximately ten per cent in the number of employees in the eastern region of the system.

"Many of these men will be needed at other points on the system," the announcement said, "particularly in the central region, in and about Pittsburgh, and every endeavor will be made to find places for as many as possible."

"Care will be exercised in making the contemplated changes, not to interfere in any way with the ability to handle traffic or to make prompt repairs to cars and locomotives."

The eastern region embraces the territory east of Altoona, Pa., and between Norfolk and New York.

The statement made no reference to changes in other regions comprising the Pennsylvania system. While the announcement did not specify the classes of employees to be dropped, it was said by Pennsylvania officials that the majority of the changes would be among men in repair shops, cleaners and clerks in the shops and general offices. It was estimated that between 11,000 and 12,000 employees in the eastern region would be affected.

PRESENT RENT LAWS CALLED "BLESSING" TO NEW YORK CITY

New York, July 19. — No action designed to repeal or curtail the effectiveness of rent laws passed last spring should be taken in event a special session of the New York legislature is held this summer. Major LaGuardia, president of the Board of Aldermen, declared here today at the first public hearing of the joint legislative committee on housing.

Major LaGuardia said the laws had proved a "blessing" to the city last May by averting a serious crisis in the housing situation.

Arthur J. Hilley, chairman of the mayor's committee on housing, opposed the holding of a special legislative session on the ground that no new laws were needed; the laws passed in the spring would take care of the October emergency.

FOREIGNERS IN CHINA SAFE

Washington, July 19. — Apprehension as to the safety of foreigners in China resulting from the fighting in progress between the forces of the two rival factions, was lessened today by advice received by the state department from the American legation at Peking.

General Wang, commanding the forces in Peking, had taken measures to protect Americans and other foreigners.

PHYSICIAN JAILED FOR "LETTING WOMAN DIE"

Gets Three-Year Sentence For Having Performed Alleged Unnecessary Operation

New York, July 19. — Dr. Julius Hammer, the Bronx physician convicted of manslaughter in the first degree, for having performed an alleged unnecessary operation on a woman, today was sentenced in the Bronx county court to serve not less than three years and six months and not more than 15 years in state prison.

Hammer's attorney, who made an appeal for a new trial which was denied, obtained a stay of execution of sentence until July 26. The appeal for a new trial was asked on the ground that the jury which convicted Hammer was prejudiced against him, following the exposure of an alleged attempt to bribe one of the jurors, and also on the ground that he had the right to perform the operation and there was no direct proof that he had caused the woman's death.

Assistant District Attorney Cohn, in reviewing the evidence before the court, charged that Dr. Hammer had allowed the woman "to die like a dog," that he had attempted to write up a death certificate for her, which was to say that she died of influenza, and had failed to call in other doctors and nurses.

Several physicians appeared before the court to testify as to the high standing of Dr. Hammer. Petitions signed by 200 physicians asking for clemency for the defendant were also presented.

After reading the petitions, Judge Louis D. Gibbs had them read into the record and severely criticized what he said had been "the insidious and uncalled for propaganda" conducted in the doctor's behalf.

NINE MEN ENTOMBED BY MINE EXPLOSION

Rescue Crew and Volunteers Continue Efforts to Reach Victims

Pittsburgh, July 19. — The rescue crew of the bureau of mines station at Pittsburgh, with volunteers, continued to work tonight in an effort to reach the nine men who were entombed by an explosion in the mine of the Union Collieries Company at Benton, 15 miles from here, early today. Members of the rescue crew said tonight that the cage of the mine had been repaired and that they expected to penetrate the debris at the bottom of the shaft before midnight.

Officials of the Union company announced tonight that they had ascertained that nine men had been entombed, instead of eight, as reported today. The missing include three fire bosses, three pumpers and three laborers.

As soon as the cage was repaired late today, a mine rescue worker, carrying a canary bird, was lowered into the shaft a distance of more than 500 feet. He was pulled up in ten minutes, and as the bird showed no ill effects of the trip, members of the rescue crew said the mine was free from gas and fire. They explained that the bird was used as a gas and fire test.

Mike Thomas, a lamp man who was on duty when the explosion occurred, said today that shortly after the nine men went into the mine on a tour of inspection, he received a telephone call from John Lutman, fire boss, who was with the party at the mine. Lutman, he said, asked that he turn on the power so that they could get light. Thomas said he informed Lutman that it was against orders to turn on the power, but he added, when the fire boss told him there was no danger he complied with the request. A few moments later the explosion occurred, Thomas said.

LIGHTNING STRIKING OIL TANKS CAUSES AWFUL BLAZE

Baltimore, July 19. — Since noon today, when lightning struck two large tanks containing thousands of barrels of crude and light oil at the plant of the United States Asphalt Refining company, Wagner's Point, south of this city, firemen have been fighting desperately to save surrounding property. At 10 o'clock tonight the flames were shooting a hundred feet in the air and blazing oil was running in the roadways. Two blocks of two-story houses, the homes of workmen, were burning, and many more were in danger.

The burning oil was also floating toward the Texas Oil company's adjoining tanks. All hope of extinguishing the burning oil was abandoned this afternoon, as the water supply was inadequate and the firemen were directed to exert all efforts to saving the Belgrade.

President of Sidney Bank Is Found Dead in Hotel With Bullet Wound in His Head

Bayonne, N. J., July 19. — A man believed to be James L. Clark, president of the National bank at Sidney, N. Y., was found dead in a hotel room here today with a bullet wound in his head. A revolver lay near the body.

A note found in the room identified the dead man as Clark and requested that G. A. Clark of Sidney, N. Y., and John F. Curtis of Rockdale, N. Y., be notified of his death. Inquiry of the telephone operator at Sidney early this morning elicited no further information as to the death of Mr. Clark. So far as the operator knew, no report had been received there of his death.

SENATORS BEGIN FUEL SHORTAGE QUIZ TODAY

Special Committee Will Also Investigate Transportation Congestion; Witnesses Called

New York, July 19. — First hearings of the United States senate's special committee on restriction of production, which will begin here tomorrow, will bear on transportation and fuel necessary for general industry and construction, it was announced tonight. Senator William M. Calder of New York is chairman of the committee.

Witnesses representing the fuel administration of New England probably will be heard first. Following the taking of testimony from these witnesses, those representing the American Wholesale Coal association, National Coal association, the carriers and the Interstate Commerce commission will be heard.

Communications and documents received by the committee, it was said, reveal that in many quarters the transportation shortage is being blamed on the extraordinary exportation of coal, which is now being carried on through docking facilities said to have been primarily designed for domestic use.

While ample coastwise shipping is available, it was said, the lack of docking facilities curtails its use and as a result coastwise shipping is in comparative idleness. In the meantime, an unusual burden is being thrown on the railroads at a time when the shortage of rolling stock is causing concern, and many months may elapse before the impaired railroad facilities can be restored.

Further evidence submitted to the committee, it was said, showed that the curtailment of exportation and the throwing of coastwise shipping into use would have a tendency to relieve the shortage of rail transportation and materially lower the price of coal throughout the United States, which has risen in sympathy with the high export price. This high export price, the committee has been told, is due in part to the fact that Great Britain is now restricting the exportation of coal to less than one-half the usual amount.

PUBLIC HEARINGS ON COAL WAGES COME TO END TODAY

Scranton, Pa., July 19. — Public hearings of the anthracite committee, which has been sitting here for the past two weeks, charged with adjudication of the differences between the coal operators and the mine workers, will come to a close tomorrow. Representatives of the mine workers completed their oral argument today and the operators will finish tomorrow.

Dr. W. O. Thompson, chairman and representative of the public on the commission, stated tonight that he planned leaving for his home in Columbus tomorrow night. One of his first acts in Columbus will be to call in a number of expert statisticians to go over payrolls and check up and verify the reports of exhibits presented to the committee.

Following a tour of inspection, the committee will repair to Washington, where executive sessions will be conducted and the actual framing of the award started.

AMERICANS IN BOLIVIA UNMOLESTED, IT IS SAID

Washington, July 19. — Americans and all other foreigners in Bolivia were unmolested during the revolution that resulted in the overthrow of the government. Minister Magaldi reported today to the state department. The minister told of the refuge given members of the deposed administration in the American embassy, adding that practically all the requests of the diplomatic corps had been acceded to by the leaders of the revolutionaries and that all the members of the old regime who were believed to be in danger had been deported.

ITALY FEARS DISORDERS

Washington, July 19. — Italy is sending troops to the line of demarcation between Yugoslavia and Italy in anticipation of fresh disorders on the Dalmatian coast, according to cable dispatches received here today by the Jugo-Slav legation from Ljubljana and Belgrade.

COX CAMPAIGN PLANS WILL BE FRAMED TODAY

Democratic National Committee Meets in Columbus At 11 A. M.

TO SELECT MANAGER

Nominee Anxious to Have E. H. Moore, His Convention Boomer, Take Charge of Campaign

Columbus, Ohio, July 19. — Democratic leaders gathered here today to counsel with Governor Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt, the party's standard bearers, on their national political battle.

The Democratic national committee meets at 11 o'clock tomorrow to organize the campaign.

Much preliminary work was done today in conferences by early arrivals with Governor Cox and Mr. Roosevelt following their return from Washington.

Selection of a committee chairman to manage the campaign, naming of headquarters, choosing an executive sub-committee, plans for financing the campaign, arrangements for notification dates for the two nominees and their itineraries were the major affairs to be considered at tomorrow's meeting. Campaign policies received little attention in today's preliminary conferences.

Declines Harding's Request

Governor Cox declined to respond to the request of Senator Harding, his Republican opponent, for details of the governor's conference with President Wilson yesterday on the league of nations. The governor said he would answer anything desirable in his acceptance address.

Disinclination of Edmund H. Moore, national committeeman from Ohio and Governor Cox's floor manager at the San Francisco convention, to assume management of the campaign left unsettled tonight the election of a national committee chairman. Governor Cox said that in a telephone conversation Mr. Moore indicated that he did not desire the place but wished to serve in other and unofficial capacities.

"The question will be left to the committee," said Governor Cox. Mr. Moore's reasons for not wishing to manage the campaign were said by close friends to be personal, based largely on necessities of his law practice at Youngstown.

Governor Cox later tonight gave out a statement expressing his preference for Mr. Moore for chairman, saying: "My choice for chairman is E. H. Moore, who is not only my personal friend but who so successfully managed my convention campaign. I am under everlasting obligation to him. I realize that my nomination is due as much to his indefatigable energy and work and personal popularity as to any standing or popularity of my own."

Governor Cox indicated that he retained some hope of overcoming Mr. Moore's objections, but close friends of the latter declared that he would refuse to take the place.

The committee chairmanship also was discussed late today by Governor Cox with Homer S. Cummings of Connecticut, the present chairman. Mr. Cummings has stated that he wished to avoid the responsibilities and labor of another campaign, but many committee members were urging that he be "drafted" by re-election tomorrow.

Committee Women Present

A number of committee women chosen under the new rule giving women equal representation were here for tomorrow's meeting and there was a disposition to give them place, on the executive committee, possibly selecting one woman vice chairman. Woman suffrage leaders also are to urge the committee to make another move toward ratification of the federal suffrage amendment. Norman E. Mack, New York committee member, is to offer a resolution urging the Tennessee and North Carolina legislatures to ratify.

Sentiment regarding notification of the nominees appeared settled in favor of dates early in August, in order that both candidates may soon begin speaking tours. Tentative plans are for a tour of about three weeks in Eastern and Central states by Governor Cox, beginning about the middle of August, while Mr. Roosevelt stands a like period in the West. Afterward, it is proposed that they transfer the territories for another three weeks' trip. Both candidates are expected to close their campaigns in their home and nearby states.

Governor Cox said he was being urged strongly to visit the Pacific coast and that he hoped to comply.

Virtually all of the visiting committee members are giving the governor

Soviet Rejects British Peace Proposal, London Paper Hears

London, July 19. — The reply of the Russian Soviet government to the British note concerning an armistice with Poland rejects in substance the British peace proposals, according to The London Times, which today published a summary of the Soviet answer. The Bolsheviks decline to come to London for the suggested peace conference, according to the Times, because they say Great Britain is not impartial. They also object to the admission to the conference of delegates from the Baltic states, saying Russia already has made peace with them.

As to Poland, the Bolshevik government points out that the proposed armistice line is unfair to Poland, and that with direct negotiations the Bolsheviks are prepared to grant Poland a much more favorable frontier. The Bolshevik reply refuses flatly to entertain any conditions regarding the forces of General Wrangel and the refugees in South Russia, and demands the unconditional surrender of these.

The tone of the reply is sarcastic, says the Times, which declares it is aimed at driving a wedge between Poland and the Allies by stimulating Polish dissatisfaction with the British proposal.

Wilsonian Issues Rouses Harding's Fighting Blood

Marion, Ohio, July 19. — Senator Harding's offensive against the "foreign commitments" of President Wilson, initiated yesterday in a volley of questions for Governor Cox, was developed today toward a new quarter. In his second statement on the subject in 24 hours, the Republican nominee declared the Republican conception of what should have been done at Versailles had been vindicated by Colonel House, the friend and advisor of the President. He quoted the colonel as saying that negotiations of a peace treaty before creation of a league of nations was suggested by European powers and would have been the "obvious" thing to do.

The ardor with which the senator pressed his attack was interpreted by his associates here as meaning that he now regards the Wilson foreign policy as having assumed a position of paramount importance in the campaign and that he is determined to take the aggressive and hold it as the fight develops. There was no indication that his policy of a front porch campaign would be modified, but his advisors declared the term would be far from synonymous with quiescence.

Harding's Fighting Blood Up

On the question of unequalled approval of the President's conduct of foreign affairs, it was said, the nominee's fighting blood is up. It was indicated that in his speech of acceptance he might be expected to carry his attack a step further and to enliven the fight with some constructive suggestions of his own on the league question.

After two weeks of confinement in preparation of his acceptance speech, the senator adopted a program of more recreation today and in the afternoon motored to Mansfield, 40 miles away, for a golf game. It was the first time since his return to Ohio that he had been on the links and he appeared to enjoy it immensely.

Earlier in the day, he conferred with R. E. Hynicka, Republican national committeeman from Ohio, and during the evening James G. Darden of New York, one of those active in working for Mr. Harding's nomination, was a guest at the Harding home.

Marching clubs that came to Marion to boost Senator Harding's front porch campaign will rally round the same flagpole that was a center of like demonstration at the McKinley residence at Canton twenty years ago. The weather-beaten shaft, donated by Harding enthusiasts at Canton, was brought here today and set up under the senator's personal supervision, on his front lawn.

LaFollette May Run as Liberal

Chicago, July 19. — Senator Robert M. LaFollette will decide this week whether he will be a candidate for the Presidency if nominated on the Liberal party ticket, leaders of the party announced tonight.

A delegation representing the newly-organized party, which broke away from the Committee of 48 at the convention here last week, visited Senator LaFollette at his home in Madison, Wis., and asked him if he would accept the nomination, to be ratified at a mass convention later.

Prohibitionists Ready to Fight

Lincoln, Neb., July 19. — If Governor Cox or Senator Harding will issue a "clear-cut statement opposing weakening of the eighteenth amendment," the prohibition national convention, which opened here today, will probably not nominate a Presidential candidate. W. G. Calderwood, vice chairman of the party's national committee, said today.

"Unless such a statement is issued, the prohibition party will enter the field for a fight to the finish," he added.

Johnson Awaits Harding's Speech

Boston, July 19. — Senator Hiram Johnson of California, in a letter to Bancroft Abbott, leader of the Johnson forces in the pre-convention campaign in this state, which was made public tonight, said that if Senator Harding in his speech of acceptance of the Republican nomination for the presidency, should "honestly, frankly and courageously take his position in favor of the Americanism that is ours," he would "cheerfully and enthusiastically

BURTON WILL PILOT SHAMROCK IV TODAY

Skipper Who Caused Dissatisfaction in First Two Races Is Given Another Chance

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 19. — Captain William P. Burton will be at the helm of Shamrock IV when the races again tomorrow against the American defender Resolute for the America's cup.

This was the decision reached tonight by Sir Thomas Lipton and his yachting advisors after a day spent in conferences over the handling of the challenger in the first two races.

"Captain Burton will be at the wheel tomorrow, I understand," said Sir Thomas after the conference. "After that I cannot say and of course I will not talk about it."

Gossip aboard Sir Thomas' steam yacht Victoria had it that Captain Burton had asked for another chance but the Irish baronet would not discuss this phase and Captain Burton could not be reached.

With seamanship counting so much in a contest such as the America's cup race, in which the contending crafts are calculated to represent the best in American and British construction, the question of who would handle Shamrock was uppermost in gossip tonight. "Resolute still has three victories to win if she is successfully to defend the cup, whereas Shamrock needs but two more."

Regatta rules call on alternate racing days for a windward and leeward course of 16 miles to a light and a triangular course with legs of ten miles each, but as Saturday's race has to be resailed, tomorrow's contest also will be over a triangle.

Shamrock IV, will be required to give Resolute a time allowance of seven minutes and one second in tomorrow's race, the regatta committee of the New York Yacht club announced tonight. This increase of 21 seconds over the previous allowance followed the granting of the application of the Lipton craft for permission to use a larger club top sail. The new time allowance was announced after an official remeasurement had been made of Shamrock's canvas.

Moderate and mostly northeast winds, with fair weather, was the weather bureau's forecast tonight for the race tomorrow.

New York, July 19. — Indications today were, that should Shamrock IV lift the America's cup Sir Thomas Lipton will not go long unchallenged.

Friends of William Gardner, who designed Vanitie, defeated by Resolute for the right to defend the cup this year, quoted him as saying that he had been commissioned to begin work immediately on an American challenger, if Resolute should be defeated. Mr. Gardner would neither deny nor confirm this report.

VERMONT SUFFRAGISTS MAY APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT

Burlington, Vt., July 19. — If the suffrage amendment is not soon ratified by the necessary thirty-sixth state, Vermont suffragists will appeal to the United States supreme court to declare illegal Governor Clement's veto of the Vermont legislature last year. This was announced in a statement issued today at suffrage state headquarters here where it is said that local leaders are working with the approval of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, national leader of the suffrage movement. The statement says that "the validity of the entire vote cast in Vermont for president" may rest on the ruling of the supreme court.

TRAIL BLAZERS HELD UP

Eric, Pa., July 19. — Threatening weather kept the four army planes of the New York to Nome, Alaska, trail blazing expedition, from attempting the next jump to Grand Rapids, Mich., today. Captain St. Clair Street, in command, waited all day in hope that the weather would clear, but late this afternoon decided to wait until Wednesday. Weather forecasts tonight indicated that the fliers may be forced to remain here until Wednesday.

ally go forward with the Republican party.

"If in his speech of acceptance, he should evade the issue," Senator Johnson added, "a most difficult situation will be presented to men like myself."

"Y" TEAM WINS FAST GAME

Defeats Nine Spots Last Evening by Score of 4 to 1.

The Y. M. C. A. baseball nine scored another victory at Neahwa park last evening when it defeated the Nine Spots, a local aggregation, by the score of 4 to 1. The game was featured by fast playing throughout and it was not until the seventh inning that the "Y" men had the game on ice.

The Nine Spots started off with a run the very first thing, but the Y. M. C. A. retaliated in the same inning by staging an impromptu batfest, the association men knocking the ball to all corners of the field, although bringing in only one run. The 1-1 tie was broken in the second, when the "Y" got another run, and from then on the Nine Spots were held safely.

Pedrone was in the box for the "Y" and the opposing team was unable to get more than four hits off him. Delaney played a good game at second for the Y. M. C. A. and "Big Ben" VanWie was there when it came to running bases. Bishop, for the Nine Spots, made a fine catch of a line drive to left field.

Following is the score by innings:

Nine Spots ... 100000000—1 4 5 Y. M. C. A. ... 11000011X—4 9 2 Batteries — Ferns and Buell; Pedrone and Merchant.

STAMFORD WINS AGAIN

By Fast and Errorless Playing, Delaware Men Shut Out Catskill.

In a game replete with errors on the part of the Catskill team, the Stamford baseball nine was victorious by a score of 7-0 Saturday at Stamford. Deetjen, the pitcher for the home team, allowed only three hits, while the two pitchers for Catskill allowed 12. Swint, the first pitcher, was knocked out of the box during the third inning, and R. Galt took his place.

The home team made an interesting play in the third inning with Lawson on third and Boots on first. Boots started for second, which brought the ball from pitcher to first, who threw it to second. Meanwhile Lawson on third ran home, making a run even though Boots was put out.

The home nine showed its usual pep during the game, and in spite of several high flies to the outfield and speedy grounders to short, they played an errorless game.

An interesting feature of the game was the work of "Pop" Galt, the old est semi-professional baseball player in the country. Even with gray hair, Pop showed unusually great agility in wielding the bat, although he made no hits.

DULL DAY RECORDED ON STOCK EXCHANGE

Shadow of Further Labor Difficulties Hang Over Market; Financial Conditions Less Acute

New York, July 19. — The shadow of further labor difficulties hung over the stock market today, reports from Chicago and other railroad terminals indicating that the unions would probably protest against the wage increase award of the railway labor board.

Mexican affairs also presented less favorable aspects and the various oil shares with concessions in that country were under frequent pressure, affecting systematically numerous kindred issues, including motors and their accessories.

Financial conditions were less acute, last week's reports of the local federal reserve bank and the clearing house association offering ground for the belief that the credit situation at this center is tending towards ease.

This was borne out by the day's movement of demand loans, which opened at nine per cent but relaxed to eight in the last hour, when the market, especially in standard industrial, rallied substantially.

Bonds were dull and mainly lower, that tone characterizing the Liberty group, also rails and industrials. The one noteworthy exception was the new Armour seven per cent issue, which was considerably above their recent subscription price. Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

BUG-OLOGY

What do you call them?

Bedbug (Cimex lectularius). The origin of the name bedbug is unknown, but is supposed to be naturally suggested as it is descriptive. There are many local names for these parasites, as for illustration, around Boston they are called "Canches," from Baltimore comes the name "Mahogany Flat," in New York they are styled as "Red Coats," around Pittsburgh they are called "Pesty Devils," in Cincinnati and the South "Night Riders," in St. Louis and Chicago districts "Cotton Bunches," the great West "Pigmen." The old saying, "The bedbug has no teeth, but they get there just the same," is correct. Instead of teeth they possess a piercing and sucking beak to draw and rob you of your blood for their own body. Bedbugs, no matter what you may call them, or where they came from, science has found a way to rid them if you will use faithfully the new chemical Pesty Devil's Quicker "P. D. Q." A 3c package makes one quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants or cockroaches, and their eggs as well. P. D. Q. will not burn bedding, and each package contains a patent sprayer to enable you to get them in the hard-to-get-at-places. Impossible for Pesty Devils to exist where P. D. Q. is used.

FOR LACK OF VISION.

The one thing, it is forcibly and truthfully urged by the Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore, which is lacked in the present national business crisis, is not lack of money, or farm or manufactured products; the point at which all fall down is lack of distribution. We cannot distribute what we produce. The coal mines are idle not from lack of miners, but from lack of cars. There is lack of grain in the consuming centers, not because there is any lack of production, but because of lack of transportation.
There is no lack of manufactured products, or would be none if raw material could be had. Loaded cars are idle on the tracks from lack of locomotives to haul them to their destination.

"Where there is no vision the people perish," says the Record; and it continues with the further statement that "there was no vision when the Interstate Commerce commission for years denied the need of higher rates; there was no vision when legislators clubbed the railroads almost to death; no vision when business men, without investigation, fought higher freight rates; no vision when the railroad managers ignored public sentiment; none when the railway brother-hoods compelled the companies and the government to adopt without general understanding of conditions, their personal views and demands."

The first move, it asserts, and there will be general agreement with the sanity of its suggestions, should be a frank acknowledgment on the part of railroad managers that, whether they are right or wrong, they want in the interest of the great public to have all of their work thoroughly investigated —not by legislative committees, but by men competent to do things. The first move to find an antidote for the poison should be a careful diagnosis, not by railroad men nor by legislators, but by committees of the ablest business men in America. Let the railroad people make the first move by asking men like Gary, Schwab, Ford and other great constructive leaders, but no Wall Street financiers, farmers of the highest business ability, coal miners, lumber men, highway builders, and representatives of consumers, to study in detail railroad management, to find out why railroads have ceased to function properly, and to suggest remedies for physical management and for changing public hostility to public friendship. Then, and not until then, will the great railroad executives show that they understand

HOW TO LIVE A HUNDRED YEARS

Exercises Recommended For Busy Men and Women

(Copyrighted)
By DR. CHAS. E. BARKER.
Breathing Exercises.

1. Bend body at hips, sit at knees, throw out backward as far as possible while inhaling and exhale while returning to original position.
2. Rotate shoulders and arms, while raising arms and vice versa.
3. Clasp hands behind back—throw chest out and upward, shoulders back and inhale, and vice versa.
4. Breathing run.

For Kidneys.

5. Keeping knees stiff—lower hands to floor and return to chest.

For Spine.

6. Swing the arms in a circle in front of the body, keeping the knees stiff and stretching upwards as far as possible while raising arms.

For Liver.

7. Feet apart as far as possible—keeping knees stiff, bend body from side to side, raising arms alternately over the head.
8. Gladston exercise.

Lying-Down Exercises.

9. Arms at side—raise chin to chest and push hands along the limbs; vice versa.
10. Throw body to sitting position, keeping hips, knees and feet on floor; vice versa.
11. Draw both knees back to chest and return to floor.
12. Raise both legs from the floor at the same time, keeping knees stiff, vice versa.

IMPORTANT SUGGESTIONS.

1. Drink plenty of water with and between meals. Eight to ten glasses per day.
2. Get into the habit of following the exercise with cool or cold bath. If one has plenty of blood a cold bath is best, otherwise only take a cool bath after exercises.
3. The best time to take these exercises is upon arising in the morning. However, they can be taken the last thing before going to bed at night or during the day, but not immediately following any meal.
4. If you have any suspicion that your heart is not in good condition, before taking these exercises you should be examined by your family physician and follow his advice as to the way in which these exercises should be taken.
5. Remember that the only way to test the value of these exercises is to follow them regularly every day for about two months. By that time you will see the great value in performing them daily.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

The Third Party Fallacy.

The third party fizzle at Chicago disposes of a good deal of loose political theorizing. It has been fashionable in liberal and radical circles to say that there is no essential difference between the two historic major parties—that in methods and ideas they are as alike as two peas. On the basis of that assumption the liberals and radicals were led to believe it would be a simple thing to form a third major party, intended to attract the support of those whose faith in the older organizations has been chilled.

The persistence of established parties is one of the controlling factors in American politics. Our political habits are ingrained. The liberals and radicals at Chicago pursued a theory and ignored a condition. That is one reason why their efforts came to naught. — [New York Tribune.]

A New Requirement.

To become president of the United States it is necessary to have been born in the United States, preferably in Ohio. — [Toronto Mail and Empire.]

Reassuring.

The prompt return of the New York longshoremen who walked out on account of orders to handle goods delivered by non-union truckmen was a reassuring exhibition of the principle of respect for contracts. The agreement, under wise leaders, to regard a strike as a strike without evasion or camouflage helps to simplify a somewhat involved situation. — [Springfield Republican.]

Merely Echoes the Socialists.

Stripped of its side issues, its despair of the republic and its hatred of the old parties, the new organization appears to rest its cause chiefly upon government ownership of all public utilities and natural resources, including railroads, stock yards, large abattoirs, grain elevators, water-powers, cold storage and terminal warehouses, mines and all lands containing oil and minerals. In this respect, however, the new party merely echoes the international socialists, who in their platform declared for ownership and in addition summoned those who believe in that doctrine "to prepare for a complete reorganization of our social system." — [New York World.]

The Politician.

"On this matter I shall take an uncompromising stand."

"Nobody on earth is opposing it."

"That is why I consider it safe to take an uncompromising stand."

— [Louisville Courier Journal.]

Not There.

Tommy's Pop—A knot-hole, my son, is due to the fact that the knot there is not there. — [Philadelphia Record.]

Vice President Gutelius Calls Attention to Many Crossings Protected.

An item recently appearing in The Star clipped and credited to the Watson Reporter has attracted the attention of F. P. Gutelius, vice president of the D. & H. company, who writes, as follows:

"I notice an article in your paper of July 15th entitled, 'Dangerous Crossings.' Reference is made to the unfortunate accident which resulted in the death of Dr. and Mrs. Woods at Unadilla, after which it is stated, 'For some reason or another the Delaware and Hudson makes no effort to protect their crossings by watchmen or dogs.'"

"This general statement was probably made without knowledge of the facts, and for your information I would advise that on the Delaware and Hudson railway 155 crossings are protected by either bell, gates or both; 33 crossings are protected by bell or gates and visual signals; 11 crossings are protected by watchmen and bell or gates; 2 crossings are protected by bell, gates and visual signals, and 51 crossings are protected by watchmen only. This railway has on its payroll 429 crossing watchmen, and highway crossing protection costs the company an average of $43,375.00 per month."

What to Do With It.

The attorneys and executors of an estate in Binghamton are puzzled what to do with fifty bottles of rare wine left by a recent testator to heirs living in this state and Pennsylvania. The Volstead act will not permit the liquor to be given away or sold, nor will it allow its transfer from one state to another. It has been suggested that the best thing is to hold a family reunion—a plan which is said to be heartily approved by the attorneys.

For Sale—Party leaving city wishes to sell a beautiful nine-room house, centrally located, just off paved street; electric lights, fireplace, furnace, combination range, hot water heater, concrete cellar bottom. If you want a real home don't wait till you do your work; just call 537-W2. 4t

Mr. Knight of the Federal Board will be at the Home Service office all day Saturday, July 17th, to see any ex-service men. 4t

FARM HOME CONVENIENCES

Novel Demonstration of Way Water and Sewage Systems May Be Installed in Country Attracts Attention.

That the farm families of New York state are eager to learn how they may install the same conveniences—such as water and sewage systems—that their cousins in the city have, is shown by the keen interest shown by the persons who are attending this summer the novel demonstration being sent out by the college of agriculture at Ithaca.

This, in brief, is what the college is doing. First of all, through the county agricultural agent, the demonstration is arranged at the farm home of some well-known farmer. On the day of the demonstration a motor truck, carrying the equipment, arrives on the scene.

A frame-work is quickly set up representing, in skeleton form, one corner of a two-story house. The framework has probably been erected against a wall. On this wall a small gravity water tank will be set up, a hand force pump will be connected to the tank, a sink will be installed having faucets for both hot and cold water, an oil heater with hot water tank will be connected, and the heat-exchanging operation, a drain pipe from the sink will be laid to a miniature septic tank.

In August, it is planned to hold demonstrations in Schenectady, Albany, Columbia, Ulster, Greene, Schoharie, Montgomery and Fulton counties.

During the first four days of September the last of the demonstrations for this season will be held in Otsego and Broome counties.

Community Service, in its nation wide program, is seeking to establish for every boy and girl the conditions which make this youngster smile so broadly.

The restaurant at the Oneonta hotel, recently acquired by me, has now undergone a complete change of system and service. I have discontinued the charge for table service and divided the dining room into two distinct departments: The modern, up-to-date cafeteria, with all conveniences for quick service at most reasonable prices, has been provided. This part of the dining room will be very popular with those desiring quick service and the best of food at lunch room prices. Those desiring first class restaurant service will find this department the best in the city. I will guarantee satisfaction in both food and service in both departments. E. L. Ward, manager.
